Dear DBR Leaseholders,

At Friday morning's BOD Meeting, my statement that the dog barking complainant "... went after something to complain about, and ginned up as much conflict as she could" was irresponsible. I regretted saying those words as soon as they escaped my lips, as they were unkind, and unnecessary. CJ Stevens has asked for an apology, and I agree that I owe her one.

As Kate Higgins said, the statement was inappropriate, and not germane to the discussion. I truly apologize to CJ for my reckless remark, and to anyone else who felt personally offended.

Respectfully,
Linda Enger
