

Activities Report 7.23.19

It's been a busy summer with a full calendar. We have a great committee and I thank them for all their hard work; Cherrie, Susan Ramsey, Joann, Marcia, Linda Rogers and our liaison, Anne Lipe.

The Variety Show was a huge success. Thanks to the performers, bakers, T & T for sound, Melinda for emceeing and all the helpers for set up and clean up. Not only a fun night but we raised enough to buy a new sound system! Thanks to everyone who donated so generously.

There was a good turnout for the Death with Dignity presentation and much good information.

Activities is now in full blown Annual-mode. A full schedule is attached and has been placed in mailboxes. One clarification, on Saturday the Gardiner Center will be open at 8:00, breakfast will be available between 9-10.

Next week, July 29th at 4:00 Cannabis 101 presentation at Radclyffe.

Next up is the Art Show, the week of August 12, call for submissions will be coming out soon.

On August 28 at 7:00 there will be a reading by author Judith Branzburg from her book about Ivy Bottini.

That about wraps up the summer activities. One note, I will be resigning as Activities Committee Chair effective August 31. Hopefully, someone is interested in assuming the position.
