Repair, Request, Suggestion, Idea or Question:

Chinese flying lanterns are not classified as fireworks.
They are however illegal in our state.

Revised Code of WA 19.27.031, WA adm code 51-54A-003, and 2015 International Fire code.

There are numerous news articles from many countries about fires started by these items. They should be prohibited in our park. Respectfully submitted, Kerrie
